

Bella died in 1883 (the same year as infant daughter Mary Martha) and in 1886 James remarried to Jane Spence, possibly a relative of his mother. Sons John (1893), Henry (1895) and Andrew (1903) all predeceased their father.

James and Jane had at least 11 children, of whom seven died in infancy, with only sons Norman (1906) and George (1911) still living by 1921.

It is not known when James and Jane died. It is possible that son Norman died in 1940 at Pine Falls, Manitoba. George himself died prior to 1962, widow Mary outliving him for at least a decade.

Son George seems to have married a Mary(bella) and had sons Norman James, John Allan ('Johnny Mac'), Howard George and Brian ('Ricky') and possibly others still living.

George was a freighter in the 1880 and 90s

From the Edmonton Bulletin, Nov. 25.

J. Norria, J. Macdonald, and G. Kipling, arrived from Capelle on Monday evening last, having left their carts, thirty-three in number, at the edge of the woods about 60 miles this side of Battleford. They came in for fresh horses and sleighs to help to bring in their freight.

The train consisted of fifteen carts of J. Norria, nine of J. Macdonald, nine of G. Kipling, four of J. Courtpatte, and ten belonging to two half-breeds of Qu'Appelle, who had five oxen besides their horses.

October 19th 1893

Sir,

I beg to inform you that one Sunday, Alfred Whitford, the Interpreter at Bears Hill went to Wetaskiwin and returned on Monday morning the worse of liquor. I told him if it was again repeated, his connection with the service would cease, he again repeated it the following Sunday, and I dismissed him, and paid him by voucher, when his cheque for October arrives I will return it to your office.

I have hired George Kipling to take his place at $25.00 per month and rations for himself only.

Gay Guy Revels In Heavy Going

EDMONTON — Mrs. Johnny Kipling's Gay Guy found the muddy racing strip at the Edmonton exhibition track to his liking Wednesday afternoon when he romped to an easy six length triumph in the featured attraction of the Citizens' Day racing programme.

Prominent Horseman Dies Here

Funeral service will be held Wednesday for John Robert Kipling, 66, a well-known Calgary horseman who died Monday.

Born in Montana, he came to Calgary as a youth and received his education at St. Mary's School. By the time he arrived here he had already been riding at various race tracks in Montana.

He reached his jockey prime from 1920 to 1930 while touring the racing circuits in Canada and the U.S. It was during this period he rode for August Belmont in New York.

For the past 19 years he has been training horses and jockeys in Calgary. Among riders he trained were: Eddie Johnson, Bunny Johnson, Paul Frye, Jack Burge, and it is also said he taught Johnny Longden how to leave the barrier properly. Longden was renowned for his starting prowess before the days of the starting gate.

He was a member of all the horse associations in Alberta.

Besides his wife, Norma, he is survived by a daughter, Miss Roberta Kipling, Calgary, a son, John Robert Kipling, Williams Lake, B.C.; two grandchildren; a brother, William Kipling, Browning, Mont.

Parishioners and friends will meet for prayers at St. Mary's Cathedral at 7:30 p.m. today.

Requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's Cathedral Wednesday 9 a.m. with interment to follow in the family plot, St. Mary's Cemetery.

Leyden's Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Living with them were now married daughters Eleanor Bellecourt (age 24) and Belle Ladouceur (age 26) and various grandchildren. Thomas has also aged rather less than might be expected!

Thomas probably died at Heart River nearby in 1924 and Louisa at High Prairie in 1945. What became of son Adam is unknown.
