Francis (1807)

Francis married Anne Otter at Mattersey in 1830.

Their children included John (1830-31 'of Stone Hill'), Mary (1832), George (1833), William (1836), Sarah (1838) and Joseph (1842) and John (1845), all recorded as baptised at Mattersey. Martha (c1847) Elizabeth (c1850) and Henry (c1851) were baptised together in 1855. Ann (c1840) appears to have avoided recorded baptism, as does Francis (c1854).

"Larceny - before convicted of felony"

-Ann Kipling, 17, domestic servant, pleaded guilty of stealing four pairs of stays, one pair of boots, one pair of child's boots, and other articles of the value of 38s. 5d., the property of James Lacy, at Tuxford, on the 28th March; also of stealing four yards of silk and other articles at Tuxford, the property of John Blackwood. She was ordered to be imprisoned three months with hard labour.—In the case of Jane Kipling the grand jury found no true bill.—This ended the business and the court broke up about two o'clock.

A verdict of "Suicide by drowning, but no evidence as to state of mind" has been returned by Mr. J. Kenyon Parker, Coroner, in the case of William Kipling (32), ropeman, of Hill Top, Conisbrough. Kipling's body was recovered from the fishpond in Ravenfield Park on Wednesday.

Frank George (1878)

Frank married Edith Morris in 1902. Son Frank William Middleton was born the following year. Frank died in a colliery accident in 1907.

DENABY COLLIERY FATALITY.

Struck by a Piece of Coal.

At the Primitive Methodist Institute, yesterday, Mr. D. Wightman, coroner, held an inquest relative to the death of Frank George Kipling (29), labourer, 5, New Street, Mexborough, which occurred on Friday following injuries he sustained on the 23rd inst. whilst at work as a surfaceman at Denaby Colliery.

His wife gave evidence of identification, and said her husband returned home on the Monday, saying a lump of coal had fallen on his head. Witness saw a wound about an inch and a half long on the back of his head. He complained of pain, and in the afternoon he went to see Dr. Huey, who gave instructions which witness carried out. The doctor did not see him again until the Thursday morning, when deceased was worse. Dr. Dunlop and Dr. Huey subsequently attended him up to his death, which the doctor said was "due to the wound on his head."

Alfred Moore, labourer, who worked with the deceased, said they were working at the coal stack. Deceased was lowering down a truck of coal by the side brake, when a lump of coal, weighing about a stone, fell from the truck, on to his head. He was in a stooping position at the time, holding on to the brake. The coal did not knock deceased down. His head was bleeding, and he left work to have it attended to. In the opinion of witness the coal was shaken off through the waggon meeting another. No one was at fault.

A verdict of "Accidental death" was returned.

Walter Kipling (1868)

FOWL STEALING AT FINNINGLEY.—At the Roford County Petty Sessions on Saturday, Walter Kipling, Henry Searl, Stephen Winter, and Wilson Godley were brought up in custody, charged with stealing fowls and pigeons, at Finningley, on the 17th of April, the property of Wm. Pearson. —Police-constable Mellows caught the first-named three in the barn, with the pigeons in a bag, and when accused they admitted stealing them for Godley, who had, they said, promised them 4d. each and 2s. 6d. per couple for all fowls they brought. —Godley admitted buying one couple of fowls, and a hen was found on his premises. —A remand was applied for, and granted.

ASSISTANTS' TITLE: HAT-TRICK BID
 Harry Kipling, the Southport and Ainsdale assistant professional, will tomorrow attempt to set up a record by winning the Liverpool and District Assistants' golf championship for the third year in succession.
 Kipling won the title for the second time at Wallasey last year, after staving off a strong challenge from James Jackson, then assistant at Freshfield. Jackson is now a full professional to the Wirral Ladies Club. In this year's Assistants' tournament over 36 holes at Freshfield, Kipling will have a big rival in Roy MacAdam, Cyril Fryer's 19-year-old assistant at Hesketh.

He served as a gunner in the Royal Artillery in WW2. His heavy ant-aircraft battery was stationed at Batavia on Java in early February 1942. Less than a month later, the Japanese invaded, leading to a British and Dutch surrender within nine days. He became a prisoner of war of the Japanese. Later in the year, he was sent to work on the Burma Railway in Thailand, where he died in September 1943 from exhaustion following dysentery and vitamin B3 deficiency.

Braithwell, Notts, 1871

Francis can't definitely be traced after this date, although it's likely that he was the F Kipling, hurrier, 19, who was killed in fall of coal at Aldwarke Main colliery [near Rotherham] on 7 October 1872. A hurrier was a person, usually a boy or a woman, who manually pulled small loads of coal from the coalface to the shaft.
