

1722

A House in Chester Le-street, in the County of Durham, nigh the Cross, where Dorothy Kipling now lives, is to be sold. Enquire of Mr. Nicholas Richardson, Attorney at Law in Durham, or Mr. Robert Rymer, Attorney at Law in Newcastle.

1739

A Rithmetick, Vulgar, Decimal, Instrumental, Logarithmical, Algebraical; with the Extraction of the Powers of Roots, and Mensuration of Superficies and Solids; Book-Keeping after the Italian Method, with the Subsidiary Books, used by Merchants or Stewards; Geometry; Trigonometry; Surveying; Gauging; Dialling; Navigation, and Architecture, will be carefully taught at Bishop-Auckland, by JOHN KIPLING.

N. B. I teach a new Method of Chain Surveying, by which I perform all that can be done by Instruments: I also teach the Use of the Globes, Quadrants, Nocturnals, Sectors, Ring-Dials, Carpenters-Rules, and other Mathematical Instruments.

1771

Last week a young woman was found murdered behind the cattle wall, at Barnardcastle; and, on Saturday, one John Kipling was committed to Durham gaol on suspicion of the murder.

Last week the assizes ended at Durham, when John Kipling, for murder, was acquitted.

At Durham assizes, Charles Hunter and William Kipling, for house-breaking; Wm. Ludley and Samuel Paul for sheep-stealing; and John Steel for horse-stealing, received sentence of death.

Oxford Journal - Saturday 13 August 1774

BROKE out of Durham Gaol, on Friday night the 28th of October, 1774,

WILLIAM KIPLING, aged 24 years, five feet eight inches high, was born at Dalton in Gales Yorkshire, is thin visaged, marked with the small-pox, very pale complexion, a red or sandy coloured beard much grown, flaxen coloured hair cut short round his neck, is by trade a blacksmith, had on when he escaped, an old brown half Jersey coat wore out at the elbows, and mended with different colours and much burnt in the back with lime, an old black cloth waistcoat, a pair of ragged leather breeches, a pair of ribbed black and white worsted stockings, a pair of large round plated buckles.—Whoever will apprehend the said William Kipling, so as he may be secured and had again, shall receive from the keeper of the said gaol, the sum of two guineas. He left his hat, and is supposed to be much bruised or hurt in his fall.

Newcastle Courant - Saturday 12 November 1774

1799

CASTLE-EDEN INN.

ROBERT KIPLING begs Leave to acquaint the Nobility, Gentry, and others, travelling the New Turnpike Roads, that he has entered on the above INN, (lately occupied by Mr. Worthy) and that he has fitted up the same with every necessary Accommodation. — Such Ladies and Gentlemen as please to sleep at this Inn may rely on being furnished with good and well-aired Beds.

POST-CHAISES and GOOD HORSES.

From Castle-Eden Inn to Sunderland . . 14 Miles. to Stockton . . . 13
to Durham . . . 10
to or from Hartlepool 9
to or from Seaton 11

N. B. In order to accommodate Ladies and Gentlemen during the Bathing Season, good Horses and careful Drivers, with or without Chaises, will be sent on the shortest Notice, to Hartlepool or Seaton.

1815

BANKRUPTS.

John Kipling, Kingston-upon-Hull, lincn-draper, September 5, 8, and October 5, at eleven, at the Dog and Duck Tavern, Kingston-upon-Hull. Attornies, Mr. William Walmsley, Parliament-street, Hull, or Mr. Egerton, Grey's-Inn-square.

1824

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

ALL Persons having any Claim upon the Estate of CHARLES KIPLING, of Barnard Castle, in the County of Durham, Draper, who was lately discharged from the Gaol of Durham by Virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the First Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," are requested forthwith to send a Statement of their Accounts (Post-paid) to Richard Ableson, of Stockton, in the said County, Woollen Draper, the Assignee of the Estate and Effects of the said Charles Kipling, under an Indenture of Assignment, bearing Date the Fifth Day of April, 1824, and made between Henry Dance, Gentleman, the provisional Assignee of the Estate and Effects of Insolvent Debtors in England, of the One Part and the said Richard Ableson of the other Part. And all Persons who stand indebted to the said Charles Kipling, are requested to pay the Amount of their respective Debts to the said Richard Ableson, or to Thomas Grainger, Thorgate, Barnard Castle, within One Month from the Date hereof.

Stockton-on-Tees, 3d August, 1824.

1846

RUN OVER BY A CART.—On Saturday afternoon, Mr. Robert Kipling, aged 27 years, a commercial traveller, was in the act of crossing the carriage-way in King William-street, with a brown paper parcel under his arm, at the time a heavily-laden cart was passing. He dropped the parcel, and in attempting to recover it he slipped, and fell under the off-wheel, which passed over his right leg, crushing the lower part of the limb quite flat. He was extricated as soon as possible by the foot passengers, and carried to a surgeon's; but his injuries were of such a nature, that it was necessary to carry him on a police-stretcher to the accident-ward of St. Thomas's Hospital, where the medical officers found they must resort to amputation, as the leg was so much crushed. His body was likewise much contused. The driver, to whom no blame is attached, is in custody. —FAL-

1884

GRETA BRIDGE.

GRETA BRIDGE POLICE.—Yesterday, John Tonnick, Newsham, was charged with working a pony whilst in an unfit condition. Inspector Cape and P.O. Buchan gave evidence as to the condition of the animal, there being four wounds on the back. Fined 10s.—John Kipling was fined 5s. and costs for taking a rabbit from a wall on the land of Mrs. Baine at Underthwaite.—Joseph Rogers was charged with assaulting a youth named John Johnson. The bench dismissed the case.

WILLIAMS.

DISGUSTING REVELATIONS.

Yesterday at Barnard Castle John Kipling, of Merebeck, Lunedale, sued Elizabeth Collinson (14), of Woodside, Mickleton, for the sum of 10s, damages caused by defendant leaving her work without giving proper notice. The girl was hired at the November hirings at £3 for the half-year to live with complainant's mother to perform house work and milk.—Mr Barningham was for the defence, and contended that a state of affairs existed in the complainant's mother's house which were a revolt against Christianity, and that the Bench would concur that the girl was entitled to leave at a moment's notice when they heard particulars.—The girl stated that she was nearly hungered to death, tea and dry bread and a few potatoes generally making up the whole of her day's meals. Complainant's mother, an old woman, frequently during the nights awoke, shouted at defendant, and said she had dreamt there were robbers in the house, which proceedings frightened witness terribly. Another disagreeable habit was that whilst combing her hair the old woman stood over the bread that was being baked, and as she was troubled with vermin, witness was disgusted at this conduct. Other disgraceful incidents were mentioned, one of which was that in butter churning the old woman allowed a child to make water in the cream. (Laughter.) The only reply was that the cream was cold, and that it would warm it. (Renewed laughter.) Witness complained to her mother about these things, who said she had to leave.—Complainant denied some of the statements.—The Bench ordered the agreement to be cancelled, made no order as to the claim, and ordered each to pay their costs.

—Friends please accept this intimation.
 KIPLING.—On the 20th ult., at 4, Dame Dorothy-street, aged 17 years and 10 months, William, the beloved son of Thomas Kipling. Died from injuries received from the kick of a horse.—Interment at Mere Knolls Cemetery on Thursday, at 3 o'clock. Friends please accept this (the only) intimation.

1889

DEATH OF MR JOHN KIPLING, OF DARLINGTON.—Our obituary of to day contains the announcement of the death at an advanced age of one of the "old standards" among the tradesmen of Darlington. Mr John Kipling forty years ago had the name throughout a wide district of being a skillful cabinetmaker, and many scores of apprentices in his own line have acquired skill and reputation from his instruction. Mr Kipling retired some ten or eleven years ago to Robin Hood's Bay, where a married daughter, Mr Meynell, resides. He had attained to within a few days of completing the seventy-eighth year of his age; and his sons continue to carry on their father's craft in the old town. They represent the fourth generation of the trade and firm. Mr Kipling was a cousin of the late Edward Kipling, J.P., of Darlington.

1891

Mrs. Sarah Allbright applied to the magistrate at Highgate for aid in preventing a neighbour, Mr. George Charles Kipling, from looking at her. The parties had been concerned in legal proceedings, and bound over to keep the peace. Since then, the applicant said, Kipling had constantly stared at her. She was told that a summons could not be granted for this.

THE SCHOOLMASTER IN DURHAM !—The following is a verbatim copy of a notice posted in the Market Place of Durham last week :—"Notis, to be sold a large quantity of Grats and tils—and ovans, aply to White and Kipling."

Newcastle Guardian and Tyne Mercury - Saturday 25 April 1846